1 Title 1. Human Resources

1.1 Article I. Employment Eligibility

1.1.1 To hold an elected or non-elected position in the ASWWU, an individual must:

1.1.1.1 Be a student of Walla Walla University

1.1.1.2 Be enrolled for a minimum of six (6) credit hours, and

1.1.1.3 Have and maintain a GPA above 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.

1.1.1.4 Be a dues paying member of the ASWWU, and

1.1.1.5 Physically attend classed on a Walla Walla University campus.

1.1.2 If an individual elected to or employed by the ASWWU does not maintain his/her eligibility status or is put on citizenship probation, he/she will be asked to step down from his/her position.

1.1.3 Faculty and staff representatives on committees are volunteers and should be in good standing with Walla Walla University. If they are put on probation, they will be asked to step down.

1.1.4 Separate eligibility requirements for the elected executive officers (ASWWU President, EVP, Social VP and Spiritual VP) are found in the Elections Manual, Article IV, Section 4.

1.1.5 In special circumstances, an appeals process can be filed with the Chief Justice. In this case, the Chief Justice, the ASWWU President, the Senate Personnel Committee Chair, the Diversity and Wellness Officer, and the ASWWU Sponsor shall meet to discuss any exceptions made to the requirements in Title 1, Article 1, Section 1 and come to a decision with a 2/3 vote margin.

1.1.5.1 The Senate shall be notified of any appeals made under these circumstances

1.2 Article II. ASWWU Positions

1.2.1 All ASWWU Positions fall under one of three categories of employment: Full-Time Position, Ad Hoc Position, and Contract Position. These titles are defined in Title II, Article 1 of this document.

1.3 Article III. Hiring Process

1.3.1 Hiring Practices

The ASWWU hires non-elected staff members based on the persons ability to perform the duties listed in the respective job descriptions, to serve the ASWWU organization, and to represent the students of Walla Walla University. The hiring process to be used during employee selection is outlined below:

1.3.1.1 Announce job openings via multiple channels (options include Collegian, Marketing, Walla Walla Announcements, Senate emails and the ASWWU Website) at least two weeks before job applications are due.

1.3.1.2 Have applicants fill out the job application form available in Appendix A and submit a cover letter, resume, and references as attachments.

1.3.1.3 Applicants shall be interviewed by and at the discretion of the direct supervisor of the position. At the direct supervisors discretion, or at the request of the ASWWU President, two additional interviewers may attend the interview. All conclusions regarding each applicant should be documented in writing and submitted to the Executive team.

1.3.1.4 The interviewer(s) should discuss with the Hiring Committee (ASWWU President, ASWWU EVP, and the vice president or department head of the applicable position) to discuss their conclusions regarding each candidate.

1.3.1.5 The Hiring Committee should discuss the interviewers' conclusions and make a hiring decision based on ability, skill level, and the goals of the position.

1.3.1.5.1 When applicable, the Hiring Committees choice will be taken to the Senate for final approval.

1.3.1.6 The top two (2) candidates may undergo a second interview by the Hiring Committee if necessary.

1.3.1.7 The Financial Vice President and Marketing Vice President shall be hired in accordance with Title 2, Article 1, Sections 6.1 and 6.2, respectively, of the ASWWU Bylaws.

1.3.1.8 Deviations from the Hiring Process may be followed with approval from the Hiring Committee and must be announced to the ASWWU Senate in the next regular Senate meeting following the decision to deviate from the process.

1.3.1.8.1 Deviations in hiring protocol should be clarified to Senate, explaining which subsections of Section 1, Hiring Practices were not followed and, in compliance with FERPA, giving information on the reasoning behind those deviations.

1.3.2 Cyclical Hiring

To bring structure and inclusivity to the hiring process, each incoming ASWWU Administration is to follow the hiring process outlined below. The incoming ASWWU Administration is required to follow this procedure to hire a head for each department, and at least 75% of each department's team by the end of spring quarter of their campaign year.

1.3.2.1 Announce job openings via multiple channels during the last three weeks of winter quarter.

1.3.2.2 Accept applications for Department Head positions during the first two weeks of spring quarter

1.3.2.3 Interview and hire each Department Head during the third and fourth week of spring quarter.

1.3.2.4 Advertise for, and accept employee applications for each department from the first week until the end of the sixth week of spring quarter.

1.3.2.5 Interview and hire employees during the seventh and eighth week of spring quarter

1.3.2.6 Hiring for the positions of Financial Vice President and Marketing Vice President is not subject to this process (see Section 1.7).

1.3.2.7 Deviations from this process may be made with the approval of the Hiring Committee as defined in Section 1.4.

1.3.3 Hires Throughout the Year

Employees may be hired at other times of the year according to the process outlined in Section 1: Hiring Practices.

1.3.4 Conflicts of Interest

To help ensure objectivity in the process, if a member of the Hiring Committee or an interviewer is a relative or friend of an applicant, he/she should be removed from the hiring process regarding that position. An objective replacement may be sought to temporarily fill the role.

1.3.5 Personnel Committee Approval

The administration must complete the Personnel Committee Hiring Process Checklist and submit it to the Personnel Committee Chair to accompany all personnel legislation.

1.4 Article IV. Absence Policy

1.4.1 ASWWU Executive officers and staff are responsible for maintaining regular office/work hours and for attending all required meetings/events. Excessive absenteeism (more than three [3] during the course of the quarter) is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

84 1.4.2 ASWWU Senators must comply with the attendance policy stipulated in Article III, Section 1 of the 85 ASWWU Senate Procedural Rules.

86 1.4.3 In the case of an emergency absence of a cabinet-level employee, with the exception of the Executive 87 Vice President, the ASWWU President shall appoint a temporary replacement to that position. In 88 the case of subcabinet employees vacating their positions for emergency reasons, their immediate 89 supervisor shall appoint a temporary replacement. This temporary replacement may occupy the 90 vacant position for a term of no longer than five (5) weeks.

91 1.5 Article V. Performance Evaluations

92 1.5.1 During the winter quarter, the performance of all ASWWU executive staff, elected positions, and 93 non-elected positions will be evaluated. The evaluation process is outlined below:

94 1.5.1.1 Executive Positions:

95 1.5.1.1.1 Every executive position will anonymously evaluate those holding executive positions (including 96 themselves) using the evaluation form available in Appendix B.

97 1.5.1.1.2 The evaluations will be compiled and presented to the ASWWU President.

98 1.5.1.1.3 Each executive position will privately meet with the ASWWU President to discuss their performance
99 to date, go over the evaluations, and establish goals for the next quarter.

100 1.5.1.1.4 Evaluations will be signed and filed in the employees' personnel files.

101 1.5.1.2 Senate Positions:

102 1.5.1.2.1 The ASWWU Executive Vice President will evaluate every senator and the parliamentarian
103 using the evaluation form available in Appendix B.

104 1.5.1.2.2 Every senator and the parliamentarian will anonymously evaluate the EVP using the evaluation
105 form available in Appendix B.

106 1.5.1.2.3 The EVP will meet privately with each senator and the parliamentarian to discuss performance
107 to date, go over the evaluations, and establish goals for the next quarter.

108 1.5.1.3 Non-Elected Positions:

109 1.5.1.3.1 Supervisor will evaluate each of his/her supervisees using the evaluation form available in 110 Appendix B.

111 1.5.1.3.2 Every ASWWU employee will evaluate his/her personal work performance using the evaluation
112 form available in Appendix B.

113 1.5.1.3.3 Supervisors will privately meet with each employee to discuss his/her performance to date
114 and establish goals for the next quarter.

115 1.5.1.3.4 Evaluations will be signed and filed in the employees' personnel files.

116 1.6 Article VI. Transition Plan

117 1.6.1 Due to the nature of ASWWU's annual turnover, it is vital for employees to follow the transition plan
118 outlined below:

119 1.6.1.1 Maintain up-to-date written/digital documentation regarding job procedures, regular contacts,
120 and other information.

121 1.6.1.2 Keep all digital documents, correspondence, and planning materials on a computer directory
122 specific to ASWWU. All non-digital documents should be filed in the ASWWU offices.

123 1.6.1.3 Preceding the deadline for declaring candidacy, all elected officers are required to allocate a minimum
124 of five (5) hours to recruit quality candidates for the elected position they hold. This may involve
125 scheduled events, one-on-one meetings with interested parties, etc. to discuss the duties, expectations,
126 and responsibilities of holding said office.

1.6.1.4 During spring quarter, the incoming officers are required to spend twenty (20) hours in orientation with the existing officers. Training during these twenty (20) hours is to be documented and submitted to the ASWWU President if requested by the President. Orientation hours are meant to:

- 1.6.1.4.1 Provide incoming officers with a better understanding of their positions' responsibilities,
- 1.6.1.4.2 Orient the incoming officers to the locations of documentation and ASWWU procedures,
- 1.6.1.4.3 Introduce incoming officers to key university and community contacts, and
- 1.6.1.4.4 Exchange contact information.

1.7 Article VII. Anti-Harassment Policy

1.7.1 In line with Walla Walla University's Anti-Harassment Policy, the ASWWU seeks to maintain a workplace free of ethnic, racial, religious, or other discriminatory harassment. Physical harassment, slurs, and/or derogatory comments even in jest that refer to an individual's race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, handicap, veteran status, or any other classification are inappropriate, unlawful, and will not be tolerated by the ASWWU or by Walla Walla University. This Anti Harassment Policy applies to all ASWWU employees, vendors, contractors, and visitors. Violation of this policy is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

1.7.2 Sexual Harassment Policy

1.7.2.1 Sexual harassment, as defined by law, includes any and all unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or any verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment occurs when:

- 1.7.2.1.1 Submission to advances is implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of employment.
- 1.7.2.1.2 Submission or rejection of advances implicitly or explicitly affects employment decisions.
- 1.7.2.1.3 Advances, requests, and/or conduct that interferes with another individual's work performance or creates a hostile/intimidating environment.

1.7.2.2 Examples of sexual harassment include:

- 1.7.2.2.1 Unwanted touching of another employee in an offensive manner.
- 1.7.2.2.2 Implicit or explicit requests for sexual favors.
- 1.7.2.2.3 Continued expression of sexual or social interest after being informed that it is unwelcome.
- 1.7.2.2.4 Graphic or suggestive comments regarding an individual's dress or body.
- 1.7.2.2.5 Verbal comments of a sexual nature.
- 1.7.2.2.6 Degrading an individual through the use of sexual terms or labels.
- 1.7.2.2.7 Displaying sexually offensive objects or pictures in the work environment.
- 1.7.2.2.8 Making suggestive or insulting noises, obscene gestures, sexual innuendos, or jokes of a sexually specific nature.

1.7.3 The ASWWU will not tolerate sexual harassment or any gender-based conduct that disrupts, harasses, or interferes with employee work performance. Any employee who engages in such harassment is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

1.7.4 If you are a victim of harassment, you can find support by contacting one of Walla Walla University's deans (Men: x2111; Women: x2531), a counselor at Counseling & Testing Services (x2147), or the Walla Walla University Church's Christian Counseling Center (x2310).

1.8 Article VIII. Discipline Procedure

1.8.1 If a member of the ASWWU staff, elected or non-elected, fails to perform the duties outlined for their respective job, the following disciplinary procedure may be followed:

1.8.1.1 Elected Positions (Executive):

1.8.1.1.1 Removal of elected positions is to be conducted in accordance with Article III, Section 5, or Article IV, Section 3, of the ASWWU Constitution.

1.8.1.1.2 When a removal occurs, the Judicial Branch will investigate the case to ensure that the proper procedures were followed.

1.8.1.1.3 If three (3) or more Senators believe that the ASWWU President is not addressing an issue, the Executive Vice President can be officially requested to follow the above procedure. Also, if the ASWWU President is not following the duties outlined for his/her position, the Executive Vice President may institute the disciplinary process toward the ASWWU President.

1.8.1.2 Elected Positions (Legislative):

1.8.1.2.1 If a Senator is absent for three (3) or more Senate meetings in a quarter, that Senator shall be brought before the Senate Executive Committee, who shall decide by a two-thirds vote whether or not the Senator will remain in his/her position.

1.8.1.2.2 Portland Campus Senators, if not physically present at Senate meetings, will be considered present if they are included through a conference call from the Portland Campus.

1.8.1.2.3 Attendance policies shall be in accordance with Article III, Section 1, of the ASWWU Senate Procedural Rules.

1.8.1.3 Non-Elected Positions:

1.8.1.3.1 The direct supervisor shall issue a verbal warning, directly identifying the issue and setting a time frame for improvement.

1.8.1.3.2 If the time frame is not met or the issue continues, the departmental vice president or the ASWWU President shall issue a written warning instructing specific improvement by a specific date.

1.8.1.3.3 Upon lack of improvement, employment will be terminated.

1.8.2 If an individual violates the rules of conduct outlined by the ASWWU governing documents or by Walla Walla University, the ASWWU reserves the right to disregard the disciplinary process and proceed directly with impeachment or recall procedures for elected positions (outlined in Article III, Section 5, and Article IV, Section 3, of the ASWWU Constitution) or termination for non-elected positions.

1.9 Article IX. Amendments

1.9.1 The Personnel Manual may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

2 Title 2. Job Descriptions

2.1 Article I. Employment Categories

2.1.1 Full-Time Positions

2.1.1.1 Full-time positions must have job descriptions in the Personnel Manual.

2.1.2 Ad Hoc Positions

2.1.2.1 Ad Hoc positions have no legislated job description in the Personnel Manual but must follow the ASWWU hiring process.

2.1.3 Contract Positions

2.1.3.1 Contract positions are created for specific projects and are exempt from the ASWWU hiring process.

2.1.3.2 Employees in contract positions may work in no more than three (3) consecutive or nonconsecutive calendar weeks per contract within a quarter.

2.1.3.3 In the event that the project extends beyond the contract time period, the ASWWU administration may propose that the contract position transition to an Ad Hoc position. This transition is exempt from the ASWWU hiring process but must still be approved by Senate.

2.1.3.4 There may be no more than three (3) contract employees working concurrently at any time and only twelve (12) contracts per academic year. No individual may be the recipient of more than three (3) contracts per academic year.

2.1.3.5 The ASWWU administration shall send an official letter to the ASWWU Senate informing them of each contract by the next Senate meeting. This letter shall be recorded as an item in the Senate agenda.

2.1.3.6 A contract position may not be used to fill a vacated Ad Hoc position.
