2.7 Article VII. Referendum and Recall

2.7.1 Referendum

2.7.1.1 Referendum questions shall have the ability to appear on an official ASWWU ballot through one of two mechanisms, Senate-authorized legislation or the voter-initiative process.

2.7.1.2 If the Senate wishes to place a referendum question on the ballot, a Governance Legislation bill shall be brought before the Senate for consideration with an explanation as to the rationale for the question and the exact language of the question that shall appear on the ballot. The Senate cannot place any commentary on that ballot that would unduly influence voter behavior.

2.7.1.3 If the ASWWU members wish to place a referendum question on the ballot, a petition can be circulated stating the exact wording that would appear on the ballot. If twenty (20) percent of the ASWWU membership signs such petition, it shall be submitted to the Elections Board who shall place the question on the ballot. The ASWWU membership cannot place any commentary on that ballot that would unduly influence voter behavior.

2.7.1.4 In no case does the Elections Board have the authority to modify, alter, or otherwise act upon above questions except to place them on the ballot.

2.7.2 Recall

2.7.2.1 Any ASWWU elected officer and the justices can be subject to a recall election. This right shall be exclusively reserved for the ASWWU membership and cannot be authorized by the ASWWU Student Senate.

2.7.2.2 If the membership wishes to recall an ASWWU officer outlined in 2.1, the membership shall circulate a petition stating the officer(s) name(s) and position(s). No rationale for such petition is required. If thirty (30) percent of the ASWWU membership signs such petition, it shall be submitted to the Elections Board for action.

2.7.2.3 If the Elections Board certifies that thirty (30) percent of the ASWWU membership has signed the above petition, it shall call a special election. The election must be called within two (2) weeks of the receipt of such petition and shall occur no later than four (4) weeks after receipt. The sole question on the ballot in a special election shall be a simple yes-or-no vote for removal of said officer(s). The ASWWU membership cannot place any commentary on that ballot that would unduly influence voter behavior.

3 Title 3. Financial Control

3.1 Article I. Jurisdiction

3.1.1 The accounting systems and budgetary control of the ASWWU shall be controlled by the Senate, who holds the power of the purse.

3.1.2 The Financial VP shall manage the accounting system and budget of the ASWWU under the guidance and leadership of the President.

3.1.3 To transfer the control of a line item to another organization requires a two-thirds approval vote from the Senate and the signatures of the ASWWU President and the Executive VP.

3.2 Article II. Budget Process

3.2.1 By 15 May or two weeks after the hiring of the Financial Vice President, whichever is later, the incoming ASWWU President, in consultation with other officers, shall present to the Senate for approval the budget for the following academic year.

3.2.1.1 The Portland Campus Financial Vice President must present their budget within the same timeline.

3.2.2 The budget shall contain planned, itemized expenditures and revenues for each department along with the previous two years budgeted expenditures and revenues for comparison. The master budget, which outlines the budget, shall include forecasted faculty, staff, and student dues, departmental net totals, required reserve account levels, and current reserve account levels. The master budget shall also contain the previous two years figures for comparison.

3.2.3 The Financial VP, in preparing and maintaining the budget, shall ensure that net income will be budgeted at $10,000. At no point will the FVP be able to prepare or present to Senate a budget that results in net income equaling less than this mandated amount.

3.2.4 By the fourth regular meeting of the Senate, the approved ASWWU budget from the previous year (for the upcoming fiscal year) along with all proposed budget changes shall be presented to the Senate for approval. If revenue is lower than forecasted, the President and Financial VP shall propose line cuts and the list of prioritized budget needs. If revenue is higher than forecasted, each reserve must be updated first then expenditure lines can be adjusted upward limited to a percentage increase half that of the overall budget increase. Any changes from the proposed spring quarter budget should be explained and clarified upon approval of Senate.

3.2.5 Department heads, with the approval of the President and Financial VP, are permitted to re-allocate budgeted amounts between their line items, so long as these changes do not result in a change of that department's effect on overall ASWWU net income. Any inter-departmental transfers, as well as any changes that result in an effect on overall ASWWU net income, shall be approved by Senate.

3.3 Article III. Reserve Structure and Control

3.3.1 Reserve Integrity

3.3.1.1 All changes affecting the balance of the ASWWU Budget must be entered by the Financial VP or Controller into the ASWWU Financial Records in the reserve section. The entry must include the date, the amount, the name and position of the person who is withdrawing/adding the money, and the reason the money was withdrawn/added. If a withdrawal is for the purchase of equipment or acquisition of some asset(s), the new asset(s) must be entered into the most recent end-of-the-year inventory for the department making the purchase.

3.3.2 Long-Term Projects Fund

3.3.2.1 A Long-Term Projects Fund shall be maintained by each ASWWU Administration.

3.3.2.2 A yearly contribution to the Long-Term Projects Fund of $20,000 is required of each ASWWU administration.

3.3.2.2.1 All contributions to the Long-Term Projects Fund must come from the overall ASWWU budget.

3.3.2.3 The money in the Long-Term Projects Fund may not be used until it reaches a balance of $80,000.

3.3.2.4 The quarter before the Long-Term Projects Fund will reach $80,000, the current ASWWU administration must start advertising for the fund. Official proposals may be presented once the fund reaches a balance of $80,000.

3.3.2.5 Any project which would be funded by the Long-Term Projects Fund must be presented in a proposal to the Long-Term Projects Fund Committee (LTPC). This committee would consist of the ASWWU President, Executive Vice President, Senate Finance Committee Chair, the Financial Vice President, the ASWWU Sponsor and each of the Senate Committee Chairs. This proposal must include:

3.3.2.5.1 Reasons section showing why project is needed on campus and how it will benefit students.

3.3.2.5.2 Area usage permission section granting usage of area on campus if needed in project from appropriate administrators.

3.3.2.5.3 Budget section on how funds will be used.

3.3.2.5.4 Analysis of different contracts section for fund spending and why current plan is most efficient.

3.3.2.5.5 Sustainability section outlining future operations of project.

3.3.2.6 Proposals made to the LTPC will be made publicly available and posted on ASWWU.com. Additionally, it will be announced in [The Collegian] and in the weekly ASWWU Marketing email whenever the LTPC hears a proposal. This announcement shall include the name of the lead proposer as well as the title of their proposal and a description not exceeding 120 characters in length.

3.3.2.7 Following the first presentation of a proposal to the Long-Term Projects Fund Committee, a period of 10 school weeks must elapse during which other proposals may be submitted.

3.3.2.8 As proposals approved by the LTPC, they will then be presented to University Master Planning Committee (UMPC) and their recommendations will be attached to the proposal.

3.3.2.9 After all approved proposals have been reviewed by the UMPC, the LTPC will deliberate and select one of the approved proposals to bring to Senate.

3.3.2.10 The winning proposal will be presented to Senate by the ASWWU president as new business. Senate will authorize disbursement of the Long-Term Projects Fund with a two thirds (2/3) vote.

3.3.3 Use of the ASWWU Emergency Fund

3.3.3.1 The ASWWU Emergency fund may be used when essential ASWWU services cannot be funded due to extraordinary events such as a large decrease in enrollment or large losses from theft or damage.

3.3.3.2 In order to withdraw money from the Emergency fund, the President will write a financial legislation bill and submit that to a three-quarters approval vote of the Senate.

3.3.3.3 A balance of $40,000 must be maintained in the Emergency fund at all times.

3.3.3.4 Funds withdrawn from the ASWWU Emergency fund for emergency purposes need not be replenished during the same school year. The resulting deficit in the Emergency fund shall be replenished to the requirement as stated in Section 4.3. by the following years budget as an operating expense.

3.3.4 Investment of Excess Funds

3.3.4.1 Excess funds available at the close of any given years budget on June 30 of that year, after the Long-Term Projects Fund balance and Capital Reserve balance have been updated according to 2.1 and 4.3 of this Article, shall be referred to as net income. Any net income at year-end will be invested in the Long-Term Projects Fund to grow the principal balance of the Long-Term Projects Fund.

3.3.5 Atlas Lifecycle Fund

3.3.5.1 The Financial Vice President shall maintain a fund for lifecycle expenditures specific to the Atlas. These funds shall be available for major equipment purchases, repairs, and renovations.

3.3.5.2 The Financial Vice President shall transfer $2,000 into the Atlas Lifecycle Fund each academic year.

3.3.5.3 Funds may be withdrawn by the Atlas Manager with the approval of Cabinet. The President shall note any withdrawals with the Senate.

3.3.6 Feminine Products Lifecycle Fund

3.3.6.1 The Financial Vice President shall maintain a fund for lifecycle expenditures for feminine products. The funds shall be available for the purchase of feminine products and/or replacement dispensers.

3.3.6.2 The Financial Vice President shall transfer $1,200 into the Feminine Product Lifecycle Fund each academic year.

3.3.6.3 Funds may be withdrawn by the ASWWU President with the approval of Cabinet. The President shall note any withdrawals with the Senate.

3.4 Article IV. Financial Controls

3.4.1 The Senate Financial Committee shall maintain a financial log containing the budget and general reserve fund withdrawals/additions for each year. The continuity of this log is the responsibility of the acting President of the Senate in conjunction with the Senate Finance Committee. The financial log shall be titled ASWWU Financial Records and include the sections:

3.4.1.1 Yearly Budgets

3.4.1.2 Departmental Inventories

3.4.1.3 General Reserve Fund

3.4.2 The Yearly Budgets section is to include a copy of the budget approved by the ASWWU Senate and actual expenditures corresponding to each budget for each school year. The approved budget is to be added to the financial records before the next regular session of the ASWWU Senate following its approval.

3.4.3 The Departmental Inventories section is to include the end-of-the-year inventory for each ASWWU department. The incoming staff of each department must work with the outgoing staff of the same department to formulate an end-of-the-year inventory for that department. Inventory entries should include the make/model number of the item, approximate worth of the item, current condition of the item, and any special notes applying to the item. Items worth less than $150 may be lumped together into one category entitled miscellaneous.

3.4.4 The General Reserve Fund section is to contain the starting and ending balance of the General Reserve Fund (GRF) for each year. Any withdrawals from or additions to the GRF during a year shall be recorded between the years starting and ending balances. These withdrawal/addition entries shall list the amount withdrawn/added, the organization making the withdrawal/addition, and the reason for the withdrawal/addition.

3.4.5 The Senate Finance Committee, in conjunction with the ASWWU Financial VP and the President, shall evaluate the need for an annual audit. If an audit is deemed necessary, it shall be appointed with the help of the administration of WWU as necessary.

3.4.6 To ensure financial clarity and responsibility, the Financial VP shall review all noncredit card expenditures (which includes check requests, invoices, etc.). The Financial VP shall also review ASWWU credit card statements.

3.5 Article V. Property

3.5.1 Ownership of ASWWU Property

3.5.1.1 ASWWU is not incorporated; therefore, legal title and ownership of all property shall be vested in Walla Walla University, Incorporated. All financial transactions shall be subject to the regulations of that corporation.

3.5.2 Use of Personal Property

3.5.2.1 Personal property that is being used by the ASWWU for official purposes may be borrowed upon contract by an ASWWU executive officer on behalf of the ASWWU. If the value of the item exceeds $150, then the approval of the ASWWU President is required.

3.5.2.2 No compensation may be made for the use of borrowed property.

3.5.2.3 Items that are borrowed by the ASWWU shall be treated as ASWWU property for the duration of the contract and shall not be used for personal use.

3.5.2.4 All borrowed items shall have a written contract that includes (1) the name of the owner; (2) the name and description of the item; (3) the serial number, if available; (4) the reason for ASWWU use; (5) the value of item in U.S. dollars; (6) the dates and times of the lease; and (7) the signatures of the owner and approving official.

3.5.3 Reimbursement for Damaged Property

3.5.3.1 If the borrowed item is damaged or lost by an ASWWU officer or employee, then the ASWWU shall reimburse up to full market value as determined by the ASWWU Financial VP. If a reimbursement exceeds $150, Senate must be notified at the next Senate meeting. A report of the damage shall be filed with the Senate no later than the next regular Senate meeting.

3.5.3.2 If personal property does not have a written agreement but is still used by ASWWU, then the owner shall take full responsibility for any damage or loss that may be incurred or caused by ASWWU officers, employees, or members.

3.5.4 Investigation of Damage

3.5.4.1 If any ASWWU-owned or borrowed property is damaged, then investigation may be called for in accordance with Title 5, Article II.

3.6 Article VI. Capital Purchases and Sales

3.6.1 Any department desiring to spend five hundred dollars ($500) or more for capital expenditure items shall submit a request to Senate for approval.

3.6.2 Any department desiring to sell one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) or more worth of current capital shall submit a request to Senate for approval.

3.6.3 If multiple items are planned to be purchased for a total of more than five hundred dollars ($500), but the individual items do not exceed five hundred dollars ($500), the total for the planned capital expenditure as a whole will be the number used when determining the need for Senate approval.

3.6.4 Capital expenditures shall be defined as equipment or furniture with a reasonable life of at least one year.

3.6.5 Expenditures over five hundred ($500) dollars shall require the signature of the President and Financial VP.

3.7 Article VII. Department Inventories

3.7.1 By the first regular session of Senate and before the last regular senate meeting of spring quarter the incoming ASWWU President, in consultation with other officers, shall present to the Senate for review the end of the year inventories for the ASWWU Photo, Marketing, Video, and Collegian departments.

3.7.2 The accuracy of the departmental inventories shall be verified by both the outgoing and incoming departmental heads who shall sign the inventories before they are presented.

3.7.3 Any discrepancies between the previous year's ending inventory and the current year's ending inventory shall be noted with an explanation by the outgoing head of the department.

3.8 Article VIII. Contracts and Long-Term Purchasing Orders

3.8.1 Contracts and long-term purchasing orders shall be signed by the President.

3.9 Article IX. Hiring and Contracts

3.9.1 Hiring

3.9.1.1 All ASWWU positions shall be announced in The Collegian and similar media two weeks before applications are due so as to ensure equal access and fairness in selection.

3.9.1.2 All non-elected positions, whether in a paid or unpaid role, shall be required to submit to the appropriate branch an ASWWU Personnel Application and a résumé. All employee documentation will be kept on record in their employee file in the executive offices.

3.9.1.3 Employees may be paid for work completed during seven (7) consecutive days prior to the employment authorization. Work completed prior to this period will be regarded as unpaid volunteer time. It is the responsibility of the ASWWU to inform its employees of this practice.

3.9.1.4 For all persons requiring Senate confirmation, a copy of above documents shall be included with bill for consideration by the Senate. Upon selection of candidate, the person shall be given a copy of all job related ASWWU governing documents, including but not limited to, the Constitution, Bylaws, and Personnel Manuals.

3.9.1.5 Hiring procedures are further directed by the Personnel Manual

3.9.2 Contracts

3.9.2.1 Any time official funds are used for a project in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), the ASWWU shall open project bidding to the public. The public shall be made aware of such projects through The Collegian and other available media. The available bidding time for projects shall last for no less than two (2) weeks.

3.9.2.2 The bid shall include, but not be limited to, a project proposal, detailed cost estimations, a detailed timeline, and other pertinent documents as requested.

3.9.2.3 Should an ASWWU employee, in any capacity, have a fiduciary or other conflict of interest with the party bidding for such projects, the employee should send written notification of such conflicts to the President, Parliamentarian, and Senate Finance Committee chair. The employee then must remove themselves from any situation in which the said project might arise. If an employee does not disclose such conflicts, the contract is declared null and void immediately and without recourse.

3.9.2.4 Copies of all such contracts shall be made available to the Senate upon request.

3.9.2.5 Contracts lasting longer than the current fiscal year must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

3.10 Article X. ASWWU Credit Cards

639

3.10.1 The President, Social VP, and Financial VP shall each have their own ASWWU credit card in order to streamline the process of making ASWWU purchases.

640

641

3.10.2 Credit card statements shall be reviewed by the Financial VP and the chairperson of the Senate Financial Committee as stipulated in Title 3, Article IV, line 6 of the ASWWU Bylaws.

642

4 Title 4. Publications

- 4.4.4.2 If a Mask is not physically distributed, an online version must be made available to all campuses.
- 4.4.4.3 The Editor shall be responsible for setting the price at which the community, WWU administration, and departments may purchase copies of The Mask.

5 Title 5. Jurisprudence

5.1 Article I. Compliance

5.1.1 All members and employees of ASWWU serving in any capacity whatsoever within the ASWWU must comply with the Constitution, Bylaws, Manuals, and all other ASWWU Governing Documents.

5.1.2 Willful and/or deliberate disregard of these Bylaws shall be grounds for removal from office through impeachment, recall, or dismissal. Not being aware of such documents and regulations shall not be accepted as a defense.

5.2 Article II. Investigations and Misconduct

5.2.1 Initiation of an Investigation

5.2.1.1 At the request of any two ASWWU Executive Cabinet, Judicial, or Senate voting members, or as called for elsewhere in the ASWWU governing documents, an official investigation shall be conducted by the Senate Personnel Committee in consultation with the Senate Governance Committee. At the discretion of the Personnel Committee Chair and the Chief Justice, the investigation may be deferred to the Supreme Court.

5.2.2 Reports

5.2.2.1 A report of the investigation shall include any and all findings and a recommendation regarding further action, if needed. The report shall be presented and filed with the Senate, the ASWWU President, and the Supreme Court no later than five (5) academic days from the close of the investigation.

5.2.3 Actions

5.2.3.1 At least five (5) academic days prior to the Senate hearing, the defendant will be informed in writing of the time and date of the said hearing and be requested to attend. Following the hearing the defendant will be given written notice of all actions within five (5) academic days. Actions available for dealing with misconduct or any other investigated offense includes but is not limited to:

5.2.3.1.1 Removal from office (see Article III, Section 5 of the ASWWU Constitution).

5.2.3.1.2 Censure shall include a temporary suspension of privileges of office, voting rights, and pay for no more than ten (10) academic days. The hearing shall follow the same procedure as for impeachment.

5.2.3.1.3 In cases involving destruction or damage of property, fines may be levied against those involved, not to exceed the cost of replacement or repair. A two-thirds vote of the Senate is required to levy a fine.

5.2.3.1.4 A written reprimand sent to the reprimanded by the Senate. A reprimand shall not include any suspension of privileges or rights. A majority vote of the Senate is required to issue a reprimand.

5.2.4 Appeals

5.2.4.1 All actions, except for impeachment, may be appealed to the ASWWU Supreme Court. If overturned, the case shall be referred back to the Senate with recommendations.

5.2.5 Removal of a Senator

5.2.5.1 Senators of the ASWWU are to be held to a higher standard than other ASWWU members. In such case an ASWWU senator is placed on citizenship probation by the WWU Administration the following procedures are to be enacted:

5.2.5.1.1 The senator will be presented with a waiver of confidentiality by the Vice President for Student Life pertaining to the circumstance for which he/she has been placed on probation by the WWU Administration. If the senator does not wish to waive his/her confidentiality, the senator must resign his/her seat.

5.2.5.1.2 If the senator chooses not to resign their seat, the following steps will be enacted and the ASWWU Executive Vice President will be notified. The Senate will be presented with the facts pertaining to the senators probation by the applicable administration officials. The senator will also be given the opportunity to speak for ten (10) minutes in their own defense. Afterward, the Senate will vote anonymously whether or not to dismiss the senator in question. If the senator is not dismissed and they hold an office within the senate (e.g. President Pro Tempore or committee chair), an anonymous vote to dismiss the senator from that position will also be taken.

5.2.5.1.3 If the Senate does not dismiss the senator, the facts pertaining to the senators probation will be distributed in writing to that senators district along with the procedure by which the constituents within that district may dismiss the senator if they so choose.

5.2.5.1.4 If neither the ASWWU Senate nor the senators district chooses to dismiss the senator in question, no other body or office will be given the power by which to affect the senators status within the ASWWU Senate.

5.3 Article III. Conflicts of Interest

5.3.1 Concurrent Positions

5.3.1.1 No person shall hold two appointed or elective offices, including that of senator, within the ASWWU concurrently without permission granted by a two-thirds vote of the Senate. Senators holding a paid position and approved concurrently shall recuse themselves from any vote, within reason, affecting their concurrently held position.

5.3.1.2 No person shall hold a position with voting privileges in more than one of the three ASWWU branches: Executive, Legislative, and Judicial.

5.3.2 Assets and Influence

5.3.2.1 In any situation involving ASWWU assets or opportunity to influence the ASWWU unduly where there is the appearance of a conflict of interest, an investigation by the Senate or Judicial Branch is required. A report of the investigation shall include any and all findings and a recommendation regarding further action, if needed. The report shall be presented and filed with the Senate, ASWWU President, and Judges, no later than fourteen (14) days from the close of the investigation.

5.3.2.2 In the event of unavoidable conflicts of interest, approval must be obtained through Senate by a two-thirds vote.

5.4 Article IV. Security Systems

5.4.1 Ownership and Placement

5.4.1.1 All security cameras being used to monitor ASWWU facilities are to be installed or uninstalled by request of the ASWWU President and majority vote of the ASWWU Senate.

5.4.2 Use of Footage and Monitoring

5.4.2.1 No footage taken by ASWWU security cameras is to be made public, unless written requirement is made by law. Exceptions will require written permission of all recorded parties, the ASWWU President, and the ASWWU Executive VP.

5.4.2.2 In order to view footage taken by the cameras, authorization must be given by the ASWWU President and Executive VP.

798
799
800
801
802

- 5.4.2.3 Campus Security is authorized to use monitoring capabilities for theft prevention and to protect against imminent danger. It is to be otherwise assumed that persons in the ASWWU facilities who appear to have made legal entrance are there with correct authorization.
- 5.4.2.4 Should Campus Security have other concerns based on having monitored activities via ASWWU security cameras, they should first speak with the ASWWU President or Executive VP before taking any other action.
